

Josh Salmon, PGA Bio

Josh Salmon is a lifelong resident of New Mexico and his golf journey didn't begin until he was 17 years old. Josh is a graduate of the PGA Golf Management Program at New Mexico State University. He received his bachelor's degree in Marketing and has been a PGA Member since January 2010. In August of 2010, he was fortunate to begin working for the New Mexico State University PGA Golf Management Program as the Assistant Director and is currently still in this position. During his time there he has had the opportunity to mentor many students, which is the best part of his job. His day-to-day job consists of program administration, tournament operations, teaching the PGA Education, and internship placement for students. Since becoming a PGA Member, Josh has had the pleasure to win multiple Sun Country Section PGA Professional Development Awards (2014, 2016, 2018, and 2020), serve on the Sun Country Board of Directors, serve on the PGA National Education Committee, member of PGA LEAD Class #2, and was recently elected as the Secretary of the Sun Country Section. In addition to his service at the PGA Section level Josh has continued his education at the graduate level and will be completing his MBA in August 2021. Josh is a college basketball enthusiast and outside of his work he loves spending time with his family. Josh and his wife, Carleigh, have two children, Amzie (7) and Joshua (5).
